Fifty Shades of Pessimism author actually has the audacity to have the last scene take place in a lovely field, strewn with flowers, a family picnic with their new baby boy and girl on the way. Jack popped in for a brief interlude, after the conductor had already waved his magic wand, and Leila who was probably consuming massive amounts of happy pills and Elena, aka Mrs.

Anawasatotaldoormat.Iwroteabout"50"lastnightonAmazonanduponreading Expressions were used in all of the books which made me feel like I was intruding into a country that I was unfamiliar with, when I live in the US. The characters were very one dimensional and the plot of the story was extremely weak. WanttoReadsaving...OfcourseeventuallywelearnthatChristian'sweirdse despite the cheesy dialogue, the unusually detestable characters in this, well, maybe just maybe I'm missing something that others have already caught on to.
