He has found the plaza and the causeway and now Tracking another of Uncle Roger's more outrageous theories concerning a special crystal skull, Ian takes Mac back to Central America where together they search for a hidden temple near the huge archaeological site of El Pilar which straddles the border of Belize and Guatemala. The archaeologist had given more interviews and more lectures in the last three months than he had in the last year, and the donations had started coming in. Hopefully the interview will have revealed something interesting about me. He knew there were two corridors intersecting at the other end of this long corridor, with stairs at both ends and a set of elevators at the intersection. Want to Read saving... So Ian decided to set about getting the funding . My work is in a variety of genres-historical, fantasy, paranormal, futurist was delighted to learn of two more wonderful reviews from Two Lips Reviews for my Tomcat Line books, this time for books 4 and 5 of the series.
