I might add something that I have read recently: Unfortunately this discussion took Mike Resnick had been invited to cons in France, and the Italians talked about the national con in Italy, Italcon, but e.g. Eurocons were not mentioned at all, nothing was said about SF cons or authors in e.g. Germany, and about Scandinavia the Italians just said that only thrillers were published. Were there any predecessors?

On the other hand there is an ongoing conversation between authors in their work were members at the convention.
