However, today your content and nurture sequence need to be highly relevant to the exact solution the person is actively looking. The kind that can take some time, but has a tremendous 1-to-1 impact. Besides adding a call to action to join your list in your bio, there is another way to drive subscribers from Pinterest.

It stands out wholly amongst these sea of free eBooks that are used to attract attention. This list is gigantic. Personally I prefer the exit pop-up because they are less intrusive to the visitor. The great thing about infographics is that people love to share it.

I hope these ideas help you get motivated to invest time and energy into building a tool like Slack List to find communities around your topic, and then as usual add a ton of value and interact with the members before posting a useful piece of content that includes a call to action to join your list, or linking directly to your landing page.
