I wondered if it was really necessary that the whole Team Avatar went on the journey with Zuko. And the dialogue was realistic, funny and really added to the plot. He manages to ward them off, but is forcefully thrown from the lake by a strong eruption of water for his insolence.

Although Noren wishes to first go and retrieve his wife, Sokka leads him and Ki. You could even tell when certain faceless characters were experiencing certain emotions. After this, Noren looks to Zuko and finally admits his own true name, Ikem. Jun 30, Jahanzaib Asim rated it it was amazing.

Meanwhile, Aang and Katara are still in the forest, now defending themselves. Aang is outraged at his actions, citing that he knew more than anyone that Zuko was his son.
