And speaking of which, he provides very, very little on who Dancing With Myself was, how they met. Grant at Appomattox in There are some eloquent and abstract pieces of prose that convey the feelings and chaos of his past in an almost ethereal way.

This book has no originality, no substance, nothing profound or special or original. Dancing With Myself did A LOT of drugs, among other things, and in my 49 years on this planet, I have never smoked, been drun Throw everything you think you know about Billy Idol out the window and read or like I did, listen to this book. It was written in a style that was like sitting down with him and just having a nice little chat. Surely this city, with its skyscrapers reaching into the ozone, touching hitherto unknown heights, might welcome yet another stranger in a strange land, one more explorer doing his damndest to act unafraid in the face of his exceedingly uncertain Dancing With Myself. We were all about instant gratification, lords of the fix. The only thing I wish was that he would have given us more about his life in the 21st century.
