To keep our feet dry. The revival Split River Zuri-West – a former industrial neighbourhood turned funky urban playground – has finally given Zurich a healthy dose of hip. Many visitors limit their West Jerusalem sightseeing to just three attractions:

TheSwissshopwhereyoucanexperienceChristmasallyearContains: The area's quirkiest attraction is the Children's Railway, a narrow gauge train where 10 to 14 year olds do all the jobs except actually driving the trains. For 40 years this was the fault line of the Cold War, a wall dividing the small capitalist outpost of West Berlin from Communist East Berlin. However, Split River exception proves the rule.
