Deadly tornado hits Oklahoma City area – People recover belongings from the rubble of a home in Moore. We know of award-winning Hip-Hop after school programs, summer camps, and supplemental correctional education programs that help youth cope with peer pressure, trauma, and identity formation. Education is embedded throughout Hip-Hop history, making the study of its culture a critical part of our community's future. Oturu School – Authentic learning in our community Oturu School encourages hands-on opportunities for its pupils – focusing learning through connecting to the community, authentic learning, place-based curriculum, and Community Problem Solving CmPS. We believe long-term investment in the financial well being of these individuals and groups is necessary to close the educational achievement gaps and digital divide, launch and cultivate non-profits and social enterprises that build community through youth-led programs, and develop leaders and citizenry for the 21st century. More study in this area will be helpful in determining best practices. Over two hundred of the programs were national and international participants that took the online survey.
