Add in a more subtle insta-lvoe and I would have been on board. My initial thought about this when reading the first few pages was okay, this is some kind of Vampire Diaries stuff with equal sexiness and angst.

The mythological part of the story is quite well developed especially with the Then she meet Alec, a mysterious guy with sharp teeth no kidding? In fact her instant attraction to Alec was more off-putting than most considering she was ready to rip her clothes off and do both him and his brother with no thought. I saw that she wrote a nasty comment on another low Goodreads review. Beyond the 01, Laura Greenwood rated it did not like it Shelves: To find out more, including how to control cookies, see here:
