On 22 January Santa Anna reported to Victoria: In a vain attempt to keep a favorable situation for his supporters, he abdicated the crown of the Empire on 19 March

Archived from the original on March 8, Two hundred very poor and isolated families have benefited directly and additional families find new outlets for their cassava production and services through the established plants. Even though the network does not fund projects, the information, training, organization and encouragement of self-initiative it provides results in greater efficiency and benefit from the resources each member brings.

The time has come however, for PRODAR to take on a legal personality of its own a more secure funding base, the information system should become a core function of the network and allow PRODAR to report more fully and immediately on its support and facilitation activities to all members and respond more effectively to their requests.
