A few last dots - what notes were left slowed and stilled. Too many demands for ouds and sarrusophones and twelve trumpets With six bass trumpets which no one had, too many - but he was aware Of all these faults and correcting them, and had anyone taken the trouble To perform or even discuss his scores he'd have corrected them earlier - But some of his scores came back in the mail - the rest were lost. He had the child's selfishness, of course, That can rant and wail in the midst of parents' misery, as if the universe Was all in his own young spot.

In the tiny attic where he slept, Yehudi heard Anna cry out that spring, But could only hide beneath the covers during the vengeful beatings, And later sing for her when they were. How Greta loathed caution, and hoped to die young, or not too old, a joint in one hand And a paint brush in the other, leaping off a cliff with some last lover Clinging to that long red witch hair.
