I do enjoy good Historical fiction, which the author discusses as part of the Mortalis book feature, but I felt the author had a little stronger storyline in his first book. Dec 14, Robbie rated it liked it Recommends it for:

It's a good read, but like the other Cumming books it's a slow build and it's a little slow. While trying to keep his family together and have a life of his own, Blackburn and Shane are summoned to the famous mesmerist James "J. He also remembers that the pedophile was not found guilty.
