Idolatry is the setting up of false demons as much as it is false gods. Now, my son, do not find the robe of religion too rough to wear; for if, clothed in the sackcloth of St Francis, and out of love to Christ, thou dost despise the world, mortifying thy flesh, and fighting valiantly against the devil, thou too shalt receive these splendid vestments, and shine with this glorious light. Of good and evil speaking XV. HowStFrancis, havingbeentoldbyStClareandthehollyBrotherSilvestertha He very seldom left his cell, and whenever he was in company with the brothers he spoke always of God. If there is any way by which I can deliver thee from this danger, most willingly would I undergo any trouble and fatigue to help thee.
