The present study focuses on documenting the beginnings of the diplomatic career of one of the most important imperial diplomats, Dominik Andreas Count von Kaunitz – and on defining the information that was learned within the context of the current research. The meeting with the Emperor was planned down to the smallest detail:

In this man had sided with the Queen and with French diplomacy. The Count was seen to ask what the queen needed for the war. France's efforts are quite great if the soldiers sent to be a part of the troupes de Terre are also counted.
