Are only five out of the sixteen robbers still alive today? To my knowledge, no books were written by Jack Mills, nor were their any films produced about him, or members of his family. And he was not the only victim. RonnieBiggs-TheInsideStory. He lived in Mexico, Canada and France before returning to England where he was arrested in in Torquay and sentenced to 25 years. He was a delinquent, his mother died and even before that he was off the rails. He just happened to be in the wrong place at the right time or the right place at the wrong time, whichever way you look at it.
