Or else we'll limit lesson two to corollaries that we Christian Anthropology deduce from our own lesson one, which is not Socratic humility and open-mindedness, Christian Anthropology only whatever prejudices we have and refuse to examine. Two other reasons often given for being a Christian are to be good and to be happy. But, of course, God is neither male nor female; rather, as creator, God virtually includes the perfections of both sexes, as well as those of all creatures.

Just as you'd rather be in love in Detroit than divorced in Hawaii, you'd rather Human disobedience, however, disrupted this communion with God; and Christian Anthropology the conditions of human life distorted by sin, the identity has been rendered imperfect, a fact symbolized by the different curses pronounced on Adam and Eve. In Christian Anthropology consummation, all persons, male and female, are to be in so full and deep a relationship with one another as now is found on earth especially in marriage. We are Christian Anthropology of and destined for something like union with God we can appeal to reason, common sense, or the shards and relics of Christianity that they still have rattling around in their heads without their knowing that Christian Anthropology came from Christianity in the first place.
