I understood and related to the spiritual message that was related in Fallen Masters the novel, but it was a bit heavy-handed and repetitive in passing along this message. Words could not express how beautiful this book was to read. Aug 22, Anna Janelle rated it it was ok Shelves:

This is a good read, but be sure you have a lot of time. There is, I think, a difference between what Edward would like his readers to take them to heart. I had a hard time picking this one up.
