The second reason that Jesus had to be the son of a human woman was to fulfil a promise that God had made to David - one of the early kings of Israel - a thousand years earlier: But I want you to understand that the head of every man is Christ, the head of a wife is her husband, and the head of Christ is God.

But do not commit such an act of folly against this man. The messiah had to be a descendant of David. Christ's words were also very clear on this point: The Word of God is explicit on this subject. And give occasions of speech against her, and bring up an evil name upon her, and say, I took this woman, and when I came to her, I found her not a maid...

Such, rather, is identified as the "...doctrine of demons" in Tim. Related Reading: In addition to her Biblical biography, there are three primary doctrines that the Roman Catholic Church teaches about Mary:
