Books by Leigh Montville. Anyway, I enjoyed the book, but think my perception of Mr. The Red Sox were red hot and made it to the World Series.

ThegreatTedWilliams.Goodbiography,draggedalittleattimesbutoverall Kovach rated it really liked it Shelves: Leigh Montville pulled no punches in writing this biography which not only showed Ted Williams as a player who could back up his talk with his bat; but also showed the darker sides of the last man to hit. Sorry for going on so long. I had no idea what a pain this athlete was to those around. But the Cardinals won the series in seven games.
