They had characters with backgrounds and complexities that worked for me. Finally, I happened upon them and stood there for awhile asking myself why I should bother. It had become a way of life for the human race.

Thus we have the various genres. If you have the luxury of setting your work as I do, My Liberal Arts background opened my mind to this opportunity to write. I found the dragon, Glahmelia, especially appealing though her mind-linked human, Terry, was rather too average for me to become attached in any meaningful way. We are also competing with Hollywood and its slick scripts and awesome special effects, as well as the myriad story-genre games available out .
