Our arch-enemy takes no prisoners. This section releases voices again North and South from Sorrow & Blood local church, the mission agency, the strategists, the stories of families and missionary kids whose parents were martyred, the guidelines for crisis management and prevention, the ministry of the shepherds and member care providers.

They are fully known and cherished by the loving Father, the suffering servant. It had been my summary of what I teach in a hour seminary class, and I was eager to include it. It will be addressed first to the Global North, and then we will see how to adapt Sorrow & Blood to other regions.

It has been a privilege to serve our Lord over nearly 50 years of mission ministry. We speak, we are witnessing the eradication by persecution of centuries-old Christian churches in the countries of Christianity's early development. Above all we call fellow-believers to thoughtful and engaged prayer http:
